

Meet The Hurtley Sisters – Sophie (aged 8) and Kate aged 6).

They are full of fun and mischief and this book will tell you all about their adventures with their parents Bruce and Emma.

Sophie and Kate are very clever for their age and both girls like reading, writing and arithmetic.

Kate is the more daredevil of the two and loves climbing and jumping off furniture and swings and slides in the playground.

Sophie is the more creative one. She loves to paint, draw and write stories.

Like most young children they have grandparents. Granddad Colin is a clever man. He is retired now and has a hobby collecting plants from countries all over the world. He says one day he is going to write a book on his plants.

Grandma Moira says we will believe that when we see it – we think she knows Granddad very well.

The girls also have a very clever and kind Nanny, whom they know as Nanny Jinty. She is the mother of their mummy, Emma, who is tall and pretty.

In ten fun-filled, illustrated adventure stories, The Hurtley Sisters will delight and amuse children aged from four to eight.

And each story is just the right length to make them wonderful bedtime reading.

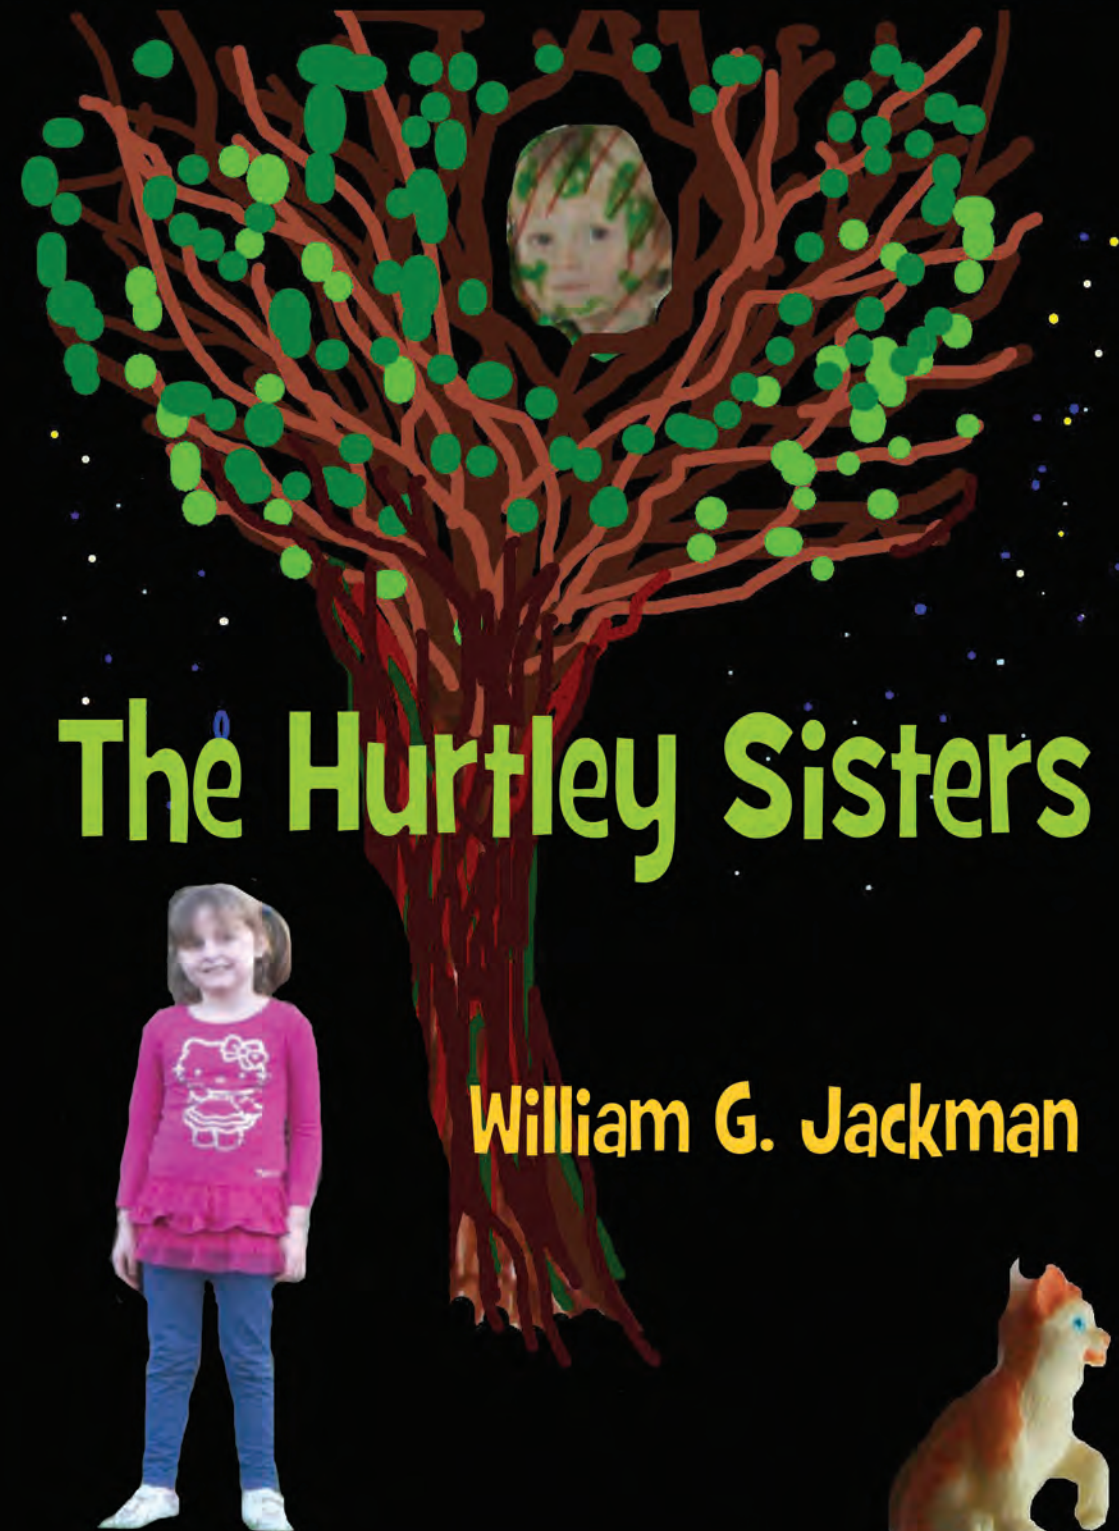

Photo (left): Poppa Bill (author) with the Hurtley Sisters.

Cover: Martin Noble, AESOP
www.aesopbooks.com

ISBN: 978-0-9569098-5-5

£5.99

The Hurtley Sisters

William G. Jackman

AESOP CHILDREN

6.00 x 9.00
229 mm x 152 mm

.124
3.149mm

6.00 x 9.00
229 mm x 152 mm

Content Type: B&W
Paper Type: White
Page Count: 60

No spine text allowed
File Type: PDF
Request ID: CSS688182

